HIPAA Privacy Notice

Notice of Privacy Practices

Effective Date: March 16, 2017

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

What is this Notice and Why is it Important?

As of April 2003, a new federal law ("HIPAA") went into effect. This law requires that health care practitioners create a notice of privacy practices for you to read. This notice tells you how the practitioners at Behavioral Health Counseling, LLC are required to be HIPAA compliant will protect your medical information, how we may use or disclose this information, and describes your rights. If you have any questions about this notice, please contact us directly at Understanding Your Health Information.

During each appointment, we record clinical information and store it in your chart. Typically, this record includes a description of your symptoms, your recent stressors, your medical problems, a mental status exam, any relevant lab test results, diagnoses, treatment, and a plan for future care. This information often referred to as your medical record, serves as a:

- Basis for planning your care and treatment
- Means of communication among the health professionals who contribute to your care
- Legal document of the care you receive
- Means by which you or a third-party payer (e.g. health insurance company) can verify that services you received were appropriately billed
- A tool with which we can assess and work to improve the care we provide

Your Health Information Rights.

You have the following rights related to your medical record:

- Obtain a copy of this notice. – You can read this notice in the waiting room, and you can also obtain your own copy if you would like. It will take up to 10 days to produce records.
- Authorization to use your health information. – Before we use or disclose your health information, other than as described below, we will obtain your written authorization, which you may revoke at any time to stop future use or disclosure.
- Access to your health information. – You may request a copy of your medical record from us at any time.
- Change your health information. – If you believe the information in your record is inaccurate or incomplete, you may request that we correct or add information.
- Request confidential communications. – You may request that when we communicate with you about your health information, we do so in a specific way (e.g. at a certain mail address or phone number). We will make every reasonable effort to agree to your request.
- Accounting of disclosures. – You may request a list of disclosures of your health information that we have made for reasons other than treatment, payment or healthcare operations.

Our Responsibilities

We are required by law to protect the privacy of your health information, to provide this notice about our privacy practices, and to abide by the terms of this notice. We reserve the right to change our policies and procedures for protecting health information. When we make a significant change in how we use or disclose your health information, we will also change this notice. Except for the purposes related to your treatment, to collect payment for our services, to perform necessary business functions, or when otherwise permitted or required by law, we will not use or disclose your health information without your authorization. You have the right to revoke your authorization at any time.

When Can We Legally Disclose Your Health Information Without Your Specific Consent?

- To facilitate your medical treatment. – For example: Your primary care physician might call us to discuss your treatment, and in that situation, we would disclose information about your diagnosis, your medications, and so on.
- To collect payment for health care services that we provide. – For example: To get paid for our services, we have our billing office send a bill to you or your insurance company. The information on the bill may include information that identifies you, as well as your diagnosis, and type of treatment. In other cases, we fill out authorization forms so your insurance company will pay for extra visits, and this includes some information about you, including your diagnosis.

Will we Disclose Your Health Information to Family and Friends?

While the new law allows such disclosures without your specific consent (if it contributes to your treatment), our office policy is that we will never share your clinical information with your family without a signed authorization from you. The BIG EXCEPTION to this is if we believe you pose an immediate danger to yourself or someone else—in that case, we will do whatever is necessary, even if that means breaching confidentiality.

Less Common Situations in Which We Might Disclose Your Health Information

- Workers compensation: we may disclose your health information to comply with laws relating to worker's compensation or other similar programs.
- Law enforcement: we may disclose your health information for law enforcement purposes as required by law or in response to a valid subpoena, or court or administrative order. This includes any information requested by the Department of Social Services (DSS) related to cases of neglect or abuse of children.
- Food and Drug Administration (FDA): we may disclose to the FDA your health information relating to adverse events due to medications.
- Business associates: we hire a billing company to send out bills to insurance companies. Some of the employees of this company have access to a small portion of your health information to allow them to do their job.

CONSENT TO TREATMENT FORM

IMPORTANT INFORMATION AND CLIENT CONSENT: Please read and sign at the end stating you have fully read and understand the information below.

CLIENT/THERAPIST RELATIONSHIP: You and your therapist have a professional relationship existing exclusively for therapeutic treatment. This relationship functions most effectively when it remains strictly professional and involves only the therapeutic aspect. Your Therapist can best serve your needs by focusing solely on therapy and avoiding any type of social or business relationship. Gifts are not appropriate, nor is any sort of trade of service for service.

AVAILABLE SERVICES: Behavioral Health Counseling, LLC and all its affiliates offers a wide array of counseling services, including individual, family, couples, and group services. We are staffed by skilled and experienced licensed mental health professionals. Effective psychotherapy is founded on mutual understanding and good rapport between client and therapist. It is our intent to convey the policies and procedures used in our practice, and we will be pleased to discuss any questions or concerns you may have.

RISKS AND BENEFITS: Counseling and psychotherapy are beneficial, but as with any treatment, there are inherent risks. During counseling, you will have discussions about personal issues which may bring to the surface uncomfortable emotions such as anger, guilt, and sadness. The benefits of counseling can far outweigh any discomfort encountered during the process, however. Some of the possible benefits are improved personal relationships, reduced feelings of emotional distress, and specific problem solving. We cannot guarantee these benefits, of course. It is our desire, however, to work with you to attain your personal goals for counseling and/or psychotherapy.

COUNSELING: We provide short-term counseling designed to address many of the issues our clients are dealing with. Your first visit will be an assessment session in which you and your therapist will determine your concerns, and if both agree that we can meet your therapeutic needs, a plan of treatment will be developed. Should you choose not to follow the plan of treatment provided to you by your therapist, services to you may be terminated. The goal of Behavioral Health Counseling, LLC is to provide the most effective therapeutic experience available to you. If at any time you feel that you and your current therapist are not a good fit, please discuss this matter with your therapist to determine if transferring to a more suitable therapist is right for you. If you and your therapist decide that other services would be more appropriate, we will assist you in finding a provider to meet your needs. Wellness is more than the absence of disease; it is a state of optimal well-being. It goes beyond the curing of illness to achieving health. Through the ongoing integration of our physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual self, each person has the opportunity to create and preserve a whole and happy life. Our services are designed to provide our clients an integrated solution for their mind, body, spirit, and life to enhance their lives and resolve issues.

YOUR RIGHTS: It is the policy of Behavioral Health Counseling, LLC that all individuals who are seeking and/or receiving services from any of our programs will be provided with effective, efficient services. These services will be directed toward health and habilitation. As an individual receiving services at our offices, you have the following rights:

- To be treated with consideration and respect for human dignity;
- To receive quality treatment regardless of race, religion, sex, age, ethnic background, mental and/or physically disabling condition;
- To be provided confidentiality and protection from any unwarranted disclosure regarding your treatment;
- To be involved in planning your treatment and to be informed about your treatment process;
- To be involved in your discharge and aftercare planning;
- To refuse treatment to the extent permitted by law and to be informed of the possible consequences of your actions;
- To expect continuity of care from one service to another, should you need another service;
- To examine and receive an explanation about the bill for your services;

APPOINTMENTS: Appointments are typically scheduled on a weekly basis and are approximately 50-60 minutes long. More frequent sessions or an intensive outpatient schedule are available if determined appropriate by your therapist. If you must cancel or reschedule your appointment, we ask that you call our office at least 24 hours in advance, whenever possible. This will free your appointment time for another client. Any lack of notice without reasonable cause will result in a cancellation fee.

FEE SCHEDULE:

Self-Pay Diagnostic & Evaluation Session (1 st visit)	$140.00
Self-Pay Regular Office Visits (50-60 minutes)	$80.00
Returned check fee per check	$35.00
Cancellation Fee (without proper notice)	$50.00

A reasonable fee will be charged for copies of any records requested by the Client.

PAYMENT/INSURANCE FILING: Payment of fees, including any required co-pays, is expected at the time of each appointment. We request that payment be made before your session begins. If you are using insurance benefits, we will file insurance claims for you, and we will honor any contractual agreements with managed health care companies that have specific reimbursement restrictions and claim requirements. If you are not using a Managed Care/PPO/HMO insurance plan and wish to file your own claim, we expect full payment at the time of service, and we will provide you with a statement for services rendered. Monthly payment arrangements are available if needed for clients who have established a payment record for three months.

EMERGENCIES: You may encounter a personal emergency which will require prompt attention. In this event, please contact our office regarding the nature and urgency of the circumstances. We will make every attempt to schedule you as soon as possible or to offer other options. Because clients may be scheduled back-to-back, it is not always possible to be seen immediately. However, we will make every effort to respond to your emergency in a timely manner. If your emergency arises after hours or on a weekend, or if you are experiencing a life-threatening emergency, call 911 or have someone take you to the nearest emergency room for help.

CONFIDENTIALITY: Behavioral Health Counseling, LLC follows all ethical standards prescribed by state and federal law. We are required by practice guidelines and standards of care to keep records of your counseling. These records are confidential with the exceptions noted below and in the Notice of Privacy Practices provided to you. Discussions between a therapist and a client are confidential. No information will be released without the client’s written consent unless mandated by law. Possible exceptions to confidentiality include but are not limited to the following situations: child abuse; abuse of the elderly or disabled; abuse of patients in mental health facilities; sexual exploitation; AIDS/HIV infection and possible transmission; criminal prosecutions; child custody cases; suits in which the mental health of a party is in issue; situations where the therapist has a duty to disclose, or where, in the therapist’s judgment, it is necessary to warn or disclose; fee disputes between the therapist and the client; a negligence suit brought by the client against the therapist; or the filing of a complaint with the licensing or certifying board. If you have any questions regarding confidentiality, you should bring them to the attention of the therapist to discuss this matter further. By signing this Information and Consent Form, you are giving consent to the undersigned therapist to share confidential information with all persons mandated by law and with the agency that referred you and the insurance carrier responsible for providing your mental health care services and payment for those services, and you are also releasing and holding harmless the undersigned therapist from any departure from your right of confidentiality that may result.

DUTY TO WARN/DUTY TO PROTECT: If my therapist believes that I (or my child if child is the client) am in any physical or emotional danger to myself or another human being, I hereby specifically give consent to my therapist to contact any person who is in a position to prevent harm to me or another, including, but not limited to, the person in danger. I also give consent to my therapist to contact any medical or law enforcement personnel deemed appropriate.

CONSENT TO TREATMENT: By signing this Client Information and Consent Form as the Client or Guardian of said Client, I acknowledge that I have read, understand, and agree to the terms and conditions contained in this form. I have been given appropriate opportunity to address any questions or request clarification for anything that is unclear to me. I am voluntarily agreeing to receiving mental health assessment, treatment and services for me (or my child if said child is the client), and I understand that I may stop such treatment or services at any time. NOTE: If you are consenting to treatment of a minor child, if a court order has been entered with respect to the conservatorship of said child, or impacting your rights with respect to consent to the child’s mental health care and treatment, Behavioral Health Counseling, LLC will not render services to your child until the therapist has received and reviewed a copy of the most recent applicable court order.
